WILL HEAR LEMP'S SIDE OF CASE

LOUIS, Mo., Feb. 11.—Before the divorce suit of Mrs. Lillian Lemp adjourned today, until they will file a motion Saturday, the case now stands. This is the testimony of William Lemp, Jr., and all of his witnesses, Judge Hitchcock told the court that he would overrule the motion and hear the case to the end.

Handwritten by Mrs. Lemp, that on several occasions Lemp had with him with reference to the divorce suit, and that he could get a divorce because she was a Catholic, but he was willing to have it, said Mr. Handman, who on the stand only a few minutes.

Pat of Elkhart, a brother of the defendant, preceded Mrs. Lemp on the stand. He was one of the alleged antagonists in the alleged antagonism between Mr. Lemp and his wife, that if children were born to them, they would not attempt to influence in any way. He testified that the document presented in court, was not signed by Mrs. Handman, before attaching her signature.

WOMAN'S NIGHTMARE

Life is so full of dread that the thought fills her with apprehension. There is no necessity for the reproduction of life to be either very real or dangerous. The use of Mother's Friend prepares the system for the coming event, and it is passed without any danger. This remedy is applied externally, and has carried thousands of women through the crisis with but little suffering.

SOCIALLY CHARMING, TOO

A Well-Developed Figure, Exquisite Bust Proportion, Well Rounded Arms and Neck, Make Homely Women Attractive—Cut This Out.

There was recently published the formula of a famous beauty doctor who became wealthy in the profession of figure culture. Many of our famous actresses and society ladies, it is claimed, owe to her science the charming and exquisite proportion of figure which they enjoy.

So rapid and thorough is the treatment that one can almost "see the flesh grow." One young matron had to prove her identity to her husband after a month's absence, during which time she had used the home treatment. An increase of six inches is not unusual after a month's treatment. Go to any druggist and get separately two ounces of glycerine, three ounces of rosewater, one ounce tincture cadomene compound (not cadomene) and five cents' worth of borax. Mix the glycerine and tincture cadomene, shake and let stand two hours. Then add rosewater and a teaspoonful of borax. Apply morning and night, rubbing until absorbed; then wash with hot water and soap; dry thoroughly. Continue a few weeks and beautiful development rewards the effort.

POLICE COURT CASES

It was a strenuous day with Judge J. M. Bowman of the police court, Thursday, for a long-drawn-out case was heard at the forenoon session, in which a long line of witnesses testified.

W. V. Black was arraigned on a charge of using abusive language to George Keddington. A score of witnesses took the stand both for the complainant and defendant. The Black family and the Keddington family engaged in a row on January 29, and it was stated on the witness stand that Black mistook the English language in telling Keddington what he thought of him. The trouble started over the cutting of a telephone wire which extended over the Keddington home to that of the Black family. The defendant was found guilty and fined $5.65. A stay of judgment was granted until February 23.

The case of St. Clair Shaogone, charged with failure to provide for his minor child, was continued with the understanding that he would assist his wife in the care of their child.

At the afternoon session of the court, Fred Swan, Sam Jackson and George H. Davis were fined $2 each for violating the speed ordinance.

Several men charged with drunkenness were found guilty and dismissed.

"OPEN PULPIT" ISSUE DEBATED BY BISHOPS

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—The house of bishops finished tonight the amendment to the "open pulpit" canon was neither repealed nor interpreted, and will stand in its present form until the general convention of the house of bishops and the house of lay and clerical delegates meet in October, 1910. The bishops plied on resolution the following resolution, presented by Bishop Tuttle of Missouri:

"Resolved, That this body, having had the petition regarding the amendment of canon 10 laid before it by the presiding bishop, wants to inform the general convention of the house of bishops and the house of lay and clerical delegates that this house is not legally competent to take any action on the matter until the meeting of the next general convention, when it will be ready to give all the consideration to the subjects with which the memorial deals."

The canon is according to most of the clergy, the only hitch is in the enforcement of the amendment that permits "Christian" men to preach from Episcopal pulpits.

Until the next convention of the full legislative body the bishops will, as at present, use their judgment in permitting outsiders to speak from the pulpit in their dioceses.

Walk To Your Meals Like A Man

Eat What You Will and Learn to Enjoy Food and to Digest It.

Here's the Secret, Free.

Make up your mind after reading this that you will let the next meal hold no terrors for you.

You can enjoy it. You can digest it. All that is needed is to give nature the juices she lacks, to give the stomach a chance to remove the terrible irritating acids, alkalies and gases which turn food and nourishment into gas and decomposition.

When a system is run down and depleted it needs building up. Ashes won't rekindle a fire and wrong digestive fluids will not take proper juices from food no matter how good the food is.

Is this common sense? Men spend years and even life experimenting on the human system, what it lacks in disease and what it needs in perfection. This knowledge is known to every physician, or should be. Stunt's Digestive Tablets are compressed, natural vegetable and fruit essences which, when mixed with the saliva of the mouth, go into the stomach capable of digesting a full meal, and they digest it to the needed speed. Then such a meal does a man good and it gives to him the means to overcome stomach troubles. Forty thousand physicians use these tablets and charge you for writing a testimonial of their merit which they will give you a prescription. Any druggist in America or Canada will sell you a box for 50c. Think of it. Every druggist carries them. Here's common sense again. Don't this tell you there's merit in it. Go to your druggist today, get a package and walk up to your meals knowing that they will not cause you pain. Send us your name and address and we will send you a trial package by mail free.
